

Does it work in Safe Mode?

Gridinsoft Help Center

Yes. You can run Gridinsoft Anti-Malware in Windows Safe Mode to clean systems that won't start normally. For best results, use Safe Mode with Networking so updates can download; some protections (e.g., network filtering) aren't available in Safe Mode. After scanning and quarantining items, restart into normal Windows and run another updated scan to verify cleanup.