

What happens when my license expires?

Gridinsoft Help Center

You can still open the app and run scans, but protection is limited. Threat database updates stop, real-time modules (e.g., Internet Security, On-Run protection) are disabled, and malware removal is blocked. You can view logs and Quarantine items, but to update definitions and remove detections you'll need to renew your license.